DIRECTOR'S NOTE

I fell in love with Cyndi Lauper's glittering score for Kinky Boots on first hearing, and jumped at the chance when Eric Abraham and Daniel Galloway asked me if I would like to direct an all-new production of the musical for the Fugard Theatre. This theatre's unwavering commitment to showcasing local talent and expertise (both on stage and behind the scenes) makes it a very special place to work – and I knew that a South African ensemble would bring something extraordinary to this most life-affirming of musicals.

Singing lies at the heart of this show, with Lauper making steep vocal demands of every single role – roles we cast by scouring the country over a two year casting process. Meanwhile, my brilliant team of creative collaborators set to work creating the sights and sounds of the contrasting worlds of a tradition-bound Northampton shoe factory, and the fabulous neon-lit universe of Lola and her Angels – with the necessary gravity-defying boots taking a central focus!

Kinky Boots' core message of the need for acceptance (of difference, of others, and of yourself), so warmly articulated in Harvey Fierstein's witty book, is one which is close to my heart. I hope that our staging will leave this sentiment echoing in your heart long after you leave the theatre tonight.

Matthew Wild, Director

The sex is in the heel!

"Designing Kinky Boots has been both the biggest challenge and the most fun I had had designing a show in my career. Bringing the two juxtaposing worlds together has been thrilling. What a show!"

Birrie le Roux, Costume Designer

Menkes: the shoemakers behind Kinky Boots

Menkes for Mugler
Follies Paris

WHAT IS MENKES?

Established in 1950, Menkes is a Spanish manufacturer and distributor specialising in custom made, handcrafted theatre costumes and shoes.

WHO WAS MARCOS MENKES?

Marcos Menkes is the founder of the Menkes fashion house. He was the son of an affluent banker from Tangier whose family suffered the effects of the uncertain years of the Second World War and they took refuge in Madrid when Marcos was aged 12. He studied at the Lycée Français and began his professional career as an apprentice to the Catalan fashion designer Marbel, who made costumes for stars of the stage and screen. This is where his passion for craftsmanship and tireless search for perfection began.

At the age of just 21, Marcos set up his first business, which specialised in making regional costumes. Nearly 70 years later, his legacy lives on in the core values of passion for design and faith in teamwork: a formula rooted in the tradition of artisanship and enhanced by the very latest technology.

His son and daughter, Jacobo Menkes and Dorita Menkes are continuing the business and keeping the traditions alive.

WHY MENKES?

In the world of the performing arts, both costumes and footwear are put through their paces on stage by performers. For this, imagination must meet the characteristics of quality, strength and durability and this is where Menkes show that they are second to none. Through constant research, artisanship and modern techniques, Menkes create shoes that are designed and built for endurance that enable them to meet the demands of constant, rigorous use on stage. This makes them the perfect manufacturer for our Kinky Boots, worn by our Company, and to be put to the test by Lola and the Angels of the Blue Angel Nightclub.

Each pair of boots was designed by Birrie le Roux, Costume Designer of The Fugard Theatre's production of Kinky Boots and is handcrafted for and tailored to each performer who wears them.

FOLLOW THE FUGARD

@thefugard

The Fugard Theatre

@TheFugard

The background of the entire page is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a stage or concert venue. It is filled with numerous bright red and white spotlights that create a sense of dynamic energy and depth. The lights are directed at various angles, some illuminating the stage floor and others creating beams of light that cut through the air. The overall color palette is dominated by the deep reds of the stage lights and the dark blues and blacks of the venue's interior. In the upper portion of the image, there are several thin, vertical green lines of varying lengths, which appear to be part of a digital or architectural design element. These lines are spaced out and add a modern, tech-oriented feel to the composition. The company name 'EASTERN ACOUSTICS' is prominently displayed in the upper center in a large, white, sans-serif font. The letters are bold and clear, standing out against the darker background. Below the name, there are more vertical green lines, similar to the ones at the top, creating a symmetrical, frame-like effect around the text.
